

Hello all,

I was advised to change the schedule I provided the other evening. Please take a look at the updated schedule below. I apologize for the inconvenience. If your group does not finish within the timeframe that you are given, any extra students will have to wait till the end of the event to perform.

I've been told to advise you to have all of your recordings on one device to help with transition times.

Please let me know if you have any other questions.
