The following is information regarding student drop off, concessions, and equipment requests. Also attached is a band information page. Please fill it out and e-mail it back to me by Monday, April 9, 2018.

The Flagler Auditorium is a 1000 seat venue. The stage will accommodate large bands well and has sound shells that cover the fly area on stage. The adjudicators will be seated in the balcony in the back of the auditorium. Concessions will be offered. (See Menu) If hotel accommodations are needed we can help you make arrangements.

Our parking area is backed up between 1:30pm and 2:30pm so please plan accordingly. Your school will be greeted upon arrival and we will have guides assigned to your band. Flagler Auditorium - Performance Venue

*The stage will accommodate small and large groups. The largest group I have had on stage is 115 students. We have a shell that covers the fly space but not the sides, and there will be a curtain down in the back. The sound in the hall is unforgiving and clear. The resonance in the hall is not dead but it isn't too live either. Floor is wood so the percussion comes off the stage hot.

*The back row center from the podium sounds a bit softer than you would like but upstairs, where the judges are, the balance is good so don't try to over correct. I have placed my tubas on the right and in the middle and they work both places. If you place the tubas in the back just be sure they are pointing up into the shell and not behind the shell.

*I would suggest that all the chairs stay inside the proscenium of the stage. This makes the sound shells the most effective and the balance upstairs stays more consistent. Anything outside is going to come off hot. In order to do this, especially for larger groups, you may have to offset the snare/bass to the left so the back row can go the back of the shell area.
